

The Thom-Boy Project Corporate Values

The Thom-Boy Project incorporates the best practices and ethical standards of service in the least restrictive manner possible through education and advocacy of its clients.

We affirm the following values:

 We believe services are to be provided in the least restrictive manner possible, while respecting the rights and dignity of vulnerable persons, and

 We strive for the highest professional standards and ethics in providing service, and

 We are committed to the assistance and education of our clients as well as partner service organizations and community members, and

 We will ensure that our non-profit goals and resources will be partnered with reputable service providers for the sake of the service dogs and their persons